

Apart from all kinds of automotive gaskets the company produces all sorts of flat industrial gaskets and sealing elements. Another field of activities involves production of aluminium and copper sealing rings, metaloplastic rings and spacer rings. Considerable share of the production is dedicated to manufacturing of pressed, dinked and cut industrial components.

Custom manufacturing workshop and tool works enable us to develop new products for our customers.